PALMER STATION WEATHER FORECAST INFORMATION

THIS INFORMATION IS FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY
AND IS LIMITED TO ACTIVITIES SPONSORED OR RECOGNIZED BY THE UNITED STATES ANTARCTIC PROGRAM

REGIONAL WEATHER SUMMARY

A low departs the area this morning, then a ridge dominates - but there's a trough on the way in from the west tonight that appears set to deliver a fairly substantial wind & snow punch to Anvers Island tomorrow. As with most of the recent systems to pass through it's a fairly fast mover; expect significant improvement by tomorrow night, and slightly warmer temperatures in its wake.
