PALMER STATION WEATHER FORECAST INFORMATION

THIS INFORMATION IS FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY
AND IS LIMITED TO ACTIVITIES SPONSORED OR RECOGNIZED BY THE UNITED STATES ANTARCTIC PROGRAM

REGIONAL WEATHER SUMMARY

High pressure brings reasonably fair weather today and this evening, but an approaching trough should kick off a period of snow before sunrise on St Paddy's. Not expecting this one to be a particularly strong system, however – winds below 20 knots should pose no threat to green top hats or any other head gear of choice.
