SURFACE FORECAST 6-Jul-2023 06Z

METSIT 21Z 4-Jul

With the delay leaving port, you will have now missed most of the weather that has been expected this week. While in port for today and tomorrow, expect clouds to move in and thicken up with temperatures cooling and increasing winds. The low pressure system that developed east of S.A. will have moved well to the east by the time you exit the Straits of Magellan.
